READ ALL ABOUT IT!

Today you are a journalist or TV reporter. Your job is to write, role play or create an interview or an article about another person who inspires you.

It could be someone at home, someone you can Facetime, or someone historical or famous. (If you search online, make sure an adult is with you.)

You could set it out as a newspaper article with a catchy headline, or maybe make a video, like a real TV presenter. Be as creative as you like, and make sure you have fun!

Think about...

Who is your audience? What might they want to know about the person? Will your report be funny, or serious, or maybe a bit of both?

Can you write some questions that you might like to ask? (Leave space to write your answers.) You could record your interview using a phone, and then listen back to it when you write your article.

Good luck reporters! You can do it.

We would love to see your work, so please do tag us if your grownups share it.
